Do you have any know conflicts that might prevent you from attending some rehearsals? Rehearsals will begin immediately after casting and will be held from 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. typically (sometimes later) The rehearsal schedule will vary each week, and will typically be Monday through Friday nights. On the average, I have rehearsal four times or five times a week. However, those cast must be available, as needed, to rehearse a few Saturday or Sunday afternoons (not often). Not everyone will be called to every rehearsal. Any foreseen possible conflicts with the rehearsal schedule must be disclosed during the audition process. In short, your time and my time are valuable, and the more I know, the better I can schedule rehearsals that work for everyone within reason:

Are you interested in working on the crew or production committee? If so, what area? I will look to the cast and families to assist with set, costumes, props, etc.—it is COMMUNITY theatre after all 😊

Thank you for auditioning! I will notify those who are cast as soon as possible after final auditions – be patient please! There may or may not be callbacks. It could take a few days (possibly into next weekend). I usually e-mail the results.
